The Saba Ravishankar Memorial Award for Community Leadership

The Saba Ravishankar Memorial Award recognizes an outstanding individual every year from the National Capital Region whose contribution has been well appreciated by the National Capital Region Tamil Canadian Community. The contributions may be in education, culture, community services, business or any other recognised field over a long period of time.

Eligibility

Anyone who lives in the National Capital Region is eligible to be nominated for the award.

Nomination Process

Nominations must be submitted before the end of Friday, March 9th, 2012. Nominations may be made using the nomination form available at http://www.ncrta.ca/awards/community_award/nomination.shtml

Alternatively, copies of the completed form can be sent to community.award@ncrta.ca or mailed to NCRTA, P.O.Box 21518, 3080 Carling Avenue, Ottawa, ON. K2B 0A3.

Selection Process

The selection committee will review the nominations and may make a selection based on the information in the nomination forms, interviews with the nominators, nominees, and others as necessary.

Selection Committee

In order to ensure the independence and integrity of the selection process, NCRTA will choose the selection committee at the beginning of the application process. All the applications will then be sent to the committee. The selection committee will consist of five members from the community covering, all age group, experience and gender. The selection committee will make its decision and inform the NCRTA board of its decision. It should be noted that the involvement of the NCRTA is limited to choosing the selection committee and encouraging the community to nominate the outstanding individuals for this award. The selection committee is fully responsible for selecting the winner of the award.

About Saba Ravishankar Award

This award is named after NCRTA's first president Saba Ravishankar who passed away in 2011. He was a great role model for the young and old in our community. He was a leader in the community who loved the community, enjoyed community service and sports, and excelled in education.
